Gebrüder Weiss: Andreas Kayser becomes Country Manager Air & Sea Germany

Lauterach / Hamburg, November 2, 2017. Andreas Kayser (37) takes over German Country Management for air and sea freight at the international logistics company Gebrüder Weiss. "With Andreas Kayser, we have brought on board a true air and sea freight expert. His excellent knowledge of the industry and the international market means that he is predestined to further develop our air and sea freight services in Germany," says Regional Manager Vojislav Jevtic.

Andreas Kayser has many years of logistics experience in the air and sea area, and has already held various management positions in globally active logistics companies. Before moving to Gebrüder Weiss, Mr. Kayser, who was born in Rhineland-Palatinate, was in charge at an international logistics service provider as General Manager Germany.

Consolidation of the German air and sea freight network

In 2017, Gebrüder Weiss put its air and sea freight network in Germany on a new footing and established four new locations within one year in Hamburg, Frankfurt, Dusseldorf and Munich. The opening of an air & sea branch in Stuttgart is planned for the beginning of 2018. The total number of air and sea freight experts employed by Gebrüder Weiss at the five German locations is approximately 100.
