Gebrüder Weiss receives top rating for creditworthiness

The rating agency Bisnode / Dun & Bradstreet once again certifies the logistics company as a particularly reliable business partner with high economic stability.

Lauterach / Vienna, 28. November 2019. The international logistics company, Gebrüder Weiss remains one of the "Top Rating Companies" in Austria. In this category, the renowned credit rating service provider, Bisnode / Dun & Bradstreet (D&B), groups companies that are characterized by financial stability and high creditworthiness. Gebrüder Weiss again received the maximum number of points. Wolfram Senger-Weiss, CEO of Gebrüder Weiss, accepted the rating certificate on November 27th in Vienna.

Gebrüder Weiss has already received this special economic quality award once before. "The top rating illustrates our high trustworthiness to customers, partners and suppliers. It is a gratifying confirmation of the success of our corporate strategy, which is consistently geared towards sustainable growth and responsible use of all resources," said Wolfram Senger-Weiss.

Bisnode is a leading European provider of data & analytics and a strategic partner of Dun & Bradstreet, the global provider of business information. The Bisnode Group has offices in 19 countries and employs 2,300 people.
